What do you see?

What does this picture have to do with our theme of the day?

- Media Mix: Star Wars: Episode III: Revenge of the Sith

What comes next for Anakin? Is the dark path a good one or a painful one?

Why would Anakin embrace the Dark Side in the first place?

remember 1 thing:

Sin is rebellion against God's good and gracious plan for your life. It is the cause of all shame, blame, pain and death in this world.

Does the Emperor sway Anakin with the truth or with lies? Is there any redemption for Anakin? _____

✦ WEAKEST FINK Write down the word and definition.

✦ BIBLE TIME

- Look up Genesis 3:1b, 3b, 4-5

Read and highlight the verse.

Doubt: The first thing the serpent told Eve to do was to doubt God

(Genesis _____)

Calling God a Liar: The second thing the serpent did was to claim God was a liar

(Genesis _____)

Shame: We see how shame enters the world in Genesis 3:7. Is shame still a force that causes us to run and hide, or is nothing sacred anymore? Is anything shameful?

Blame: The first thing Adam does when caught is blame Eve and God. Is blame still a natural human reaction?

Pain: The entire world is thrown off kilter by this sin. Where has it thrown you out of balance?

Grace: Even though Adam and Eve are guilty and thrown out of the garden, God is still in relationship with them and cares for their needs. How does God care for your needs, even though you turn from God?
